ABOUT SHEET

Set against the backdrop of the magnificent Rocky Mountains, Table Mountain Inn provides stellar hospitality and Western warmth in the center of historic Golden, Colorado. Beautiful views and premium amenities combine with incomparable attention to detail to create a welcoming experience for weary travelers. Originally built in 1925 to be Golden's first modern luxury hotel, today's property is an adobe charmer, with unusually generous rooms and suites and stunning shared spaces that feature the hotel's famed Southwestern décor. Table Mountain Grill & Cantina, helmed by Executive Chef Mitchell O'Shea, offers the freshest local cuisine with choices to suit most everyone. The lively patio, cantina and restaurant are a gathering place for locals and guests alike, providing the social center of the town.

74 well-appointed and spacious guest rooms and suites expand the notion of a boutique hotel. All rooms have real windows to better enjoy fresh mountain air. Many have balconies, jetted tubs, and pillow-topped mattresses. All boast eco-friendly, locally sourced toiletries and premium bedding. Guests can enjoy breathtaking views across downtown Golden to the Foothills and the Table Mountain (which gives the inn its name).

Executive Chef Mitchell O'Shea of Table Mountain Grill & Cantina uses locally sourced ingredients to curate a menu with an emphasis on Southwestern dishes that is designed to offer copious choices to please most palates. Brunch is served all day and features such items as their famous Mesa Bloody Mary and a Taos Egg Benedict. Happy Hour hours are legendary, with special events weekly and the popular Margarita Alley held monthly on the magical Kokopelli Patio. Succulent dinner choices include fresh Rocky Mountain Trout or Fire-Roasted Chile Rellenos.

Couples can chose between three attractive wedding packages, assisted by the Inn's award-winning professional planners. Weddings are dreamy and events run smoothly across 5,000 square feet of flexible space for 10 to 200. Table Mountain Inn Catering can bring the warm welcome of authentic Southwestern inspired food to any location in the Denver-metro area, serving from 10 to 10,000 people with a selection of breakfast, lunch or dinner for buffet or plated-style meals.

Quaint Golden is filled with small shops and Western charm and surrounded by some of the best winter sports, hiking, biking, rafting, kayaking, fishing and winter sports in the world. Golden is centrally-located for all Denver-centric adventures as well, only 25 minutes from downtown Denver, 40 minutes from the airport and 15 minutes from Red Rocks Amphitheater—among other attractions. Breckenridge and Keystone, two of the most popular ski resorts in Colorado, are less than an hour away.

Table Mountain Inn embodies the Spirit of the West and provides a comfortable haven with delightful amenities at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, truly fulfilling its destiny as Golden's premier luxury hotel.
